5 DAILY KEYS

5 DAILY KEYS TO unlock your breakthrough

FOOD: COMMIT TO A FOOD PLAN

PRODUCTS: TAKE YOUR BRAVENLY PRODUCTS

MOVE YOUR BODY: DO 20 MINS OF PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

HYDRATE: DRINK HALF YOUR BODY WEIGHT IN OUNCES OF WATER

MINDSET: COMPLETE 15 MINS OF SELF DEVELOPMENT

5 DAILY KEYS

unlock your breakthrough

key one: COMMIT TO A FOOD PLAN

Whatever route you decide to go with your nutrition, make sure you stick with it for the full 30 days. Whether you choose, Keto, Whole30, Intermittent Fasting, or something else, - practice listening to what your body needs, while practicing dedication to the plan that will fuel your body for these 30 days.

key two: TAKE YOUR PRODUCTS

Take your Bravenly products. Though the program doesn't require you to be on the products, we believe that these results-driven, premium wellness products will not only compliment your 30-day program but will significantly improve your Breakthrough results.

key three: MOVE YOUR BODY

Do 20 minutes of physical activity. No matter the level of activity, our challenge to you is to get your heart rate above a resting level for at least 20 minutes a day. This could include something as simple as walking up and down the stairs, or around the block, or as strenuous as weightlifting. YOU choose what works best for you.

key four: DRINK WATER

Drink half your body weight in oz of water every day. Simple as that. Switch it up between, tea, sparkling water, and Balance or go for regular tap water. Whatever you choose, make sure it has a water BASE and make sure you're drinking the correct amount!

key five: PRACTICE A MINDSET HABIT

Complete 15 minutes of self-development. A podcast while you're getting ready, a book on your lunch break, and a list of things you're grateful for before bed. Fit 15 minutes of self-development activity into your daily routine!

commit to a food plan

Your food plan is important to determine, in order to create a sense of structure during your Breakthrough Program. Your food path can be unique to you and does not have to fit into one of the four paths provided. We get it; Food Plans can seem daunting but we will make sure you're fully educated on how it works. The benefits it can provide makes it not just tolerable, but actually enjoyable!

There isn't always a one size fits all solution; however, we want you to feel the freedom in just trying it out!

"I found what worked best for me is longer fasting and short eating windows. I've tried a dozen different diet plans over the years for various different reasons and I've never found anything as flexible, sustainable, and forgiving as intermittent fasting."
-Aspen Emry, CEO

SAMPLE FOOD PLANS

KETO

The Ketogenic (Keto) plan is a high-fat, adequate-protein, low-carbohydrate diet that in medicine is used primarily to treat epilepsy in children. The diet forces the body to burn fat rather than carbohydrates.

WHOLE30

The Whole30 plan is a 30-day fad diet that emphasizes whole foods and during which participants eliminate sugar, alcohol, grains, legumes, soy, and dairy from their diets.

VEGAN, VEGETARIAN, GLUTEN FREE +

A vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, dairy free, or any other type of diet that you are interested in pursuing can be accomplished by doing research and making sure the foods you are putting in your body are right for you!

INTERMITTENT FASTING

Intermittent fasting is a cycle between a period of fasting and non-fasting during a defined period. This includes periodic multi-day fasts to skipping a meal or two on certain days of the week. The theory is that this type of diet will help decrease appetite by slowing the body's metabolism.

KEY ONE: FOOD

LEARN ABOUT INTERMITTENT FASTING

Chances are you've already done intermittent fasting at some point and haven't even known about it. If you've eaten dinner, rested overnight, and enjoyed breakfast the next morning, you did a 12:12. If you didn't have time to grab breakfast but ate an early lunch, you did a 14:10.

The 4 food paths provided are some of the most popular structures to follow. Choose something that works for you and your lifestyle and try sticking to it.

Intermittent Fasting reduces insulin levels, which in turn will release fat stored for energy. Moreover, when going from fasting to eating your body is able to use nutrition to be able to regenerate healthy cells.

fasting options

12:12

Give your body a rest for 12 hours a day, and eat 12 hours during the day.

An example would be eating breakfast at 8 am and finishing your dinner by 8 pm.

16:8

This is one of the most popular strategies for losing and maintaining weight.

You may open your window at 11 am for a snack and close your eating window around dinner time.

14:10

Similar to 12:12, you may choose to have your fasting window happen while you sleep.

That may mean eating a late breakfast at 10 am and closing your eating window at 8 pm.

20:4

This option would be great for someone who is looking to lose weight more quickly.

You may open your eating window for 4 hours during the day and eat at your discretion.

KEY ONE: FOOD

FOOD OPTIONS

Let's get real about FOOD. For a lot of us, food is often a source of tension, shame, or guilt. The foods we eat, how often we eat them, and how much we eat, usually holds more brain space than most other things.

Let's work towards acknowledging hunger cues, training your mind to thoughtfully evaluate how you're feeling, and healing your relationship with food.

snacking facts

Bring snacks with you to work or school so you're ready when temptation strikes. Nutrient-rich, low glycemic snacks include fruit and nuts (a small handful), yogurt, a medium-sized fruit, a homemade smoothie made with milk or soy milk and frozen berries, whole-grain crackers, raw vegetables, and hummus. These snacks have a low glycemic index (GI).

Low GI foods are digested slowly, leading to a gradual rise in blood sugar, helping you feel energetic and satisfied longer.

how to handle cravings

Cravings are intense or uncontrollable desires for specific foods and a lot of the time they are often fried foods or processed junk that is high in sugar and saturated fats. Here are a couple of tips to help fight off your cravings that seem too strong to resist:

BRAVENLY'S IDEAS FOR MANAGING CRAVINGS

1. Drink plenty of water - Sometimes thirst is commonly confused with hunger or food cravings. Drinking a cup of water and waiting can reduce cravings/appetite, as well as help with weight loss.

2. Get at least 8 hours of sleep - Sleep deprivation can be disrupting with the fluctuations, and may lead to poor appetite regulation and strong cravings.

3. Include more protein in your meals - this will help with keeping you satisfied longer and help with cravings.

4. Don't Restrict, Replace - what's your immediate reaction when you completely remove something from your diet? Maybe it's something like panic? We have been there before. The answer to this is finding healthier alternatives for your favorite junk food!

KEY FOUR: HYDRATE

Your body uses water in all its cells, organs, and tissues to help regulate its temperature and maintain healthy bodily functions. Because your body loses water through breathing, sweating, and digestion, it's important to rehydrate by drinking fluids and eating foods that contain water.

how much water to drink

Convert your weight from lbs to kg, then multiply it by 30ml. You should be drinking approximately 30ml of water per kg of body weight per day.

For example: 170lbs = 77kg $77 \times 30 = 2.3L$

facts about hydrating

- Dehydration can trigger hunger
- Water is used to regulate body temperature
- Drinking water before your meal rather than during can help prevent overeating

KEY FOUR: HYDRATE

SIGNS OF DEHYDRATION

If you're not drinking enough water each day, you risk becoming dehydrated.

ARE YOU drinking enough water?

ARE YOU HUNGRY?

KEY FIVE: MINDSET

LIFESTYLE HABITS

get better sleep

Sleep plays a crucial role in your physical, mental, and emotional health. Sleep is involved in the healing and repair of your heart, and blood vessels. When healthy sleep habits are not obtained over time, you can lose out on the key benefits, and become more vulnerable to a number of short and long-term health risks.

regulate screentime

While it's not realistic for families to be completely screen-free, there are health benefits associated with slimming screen time that you should be aware of. Things like improved mood, enhanced relationships, and improved physical health are some examples.

practice positive affirmations

Start living a healthier life with positive thinking! Mastering your mindset and improving your thoughts through positive affirmation, which are simple statements said out loud with confidence and beliefs, will help reprogram your brain to achieve your mindset goals and desires.

read & listen

Reading books and listening to podcasts allow us to become a part of something new, triggers us to pay attention, and helps us use our imagination. Podcasts and books stimulate different parts of the brain, forcing us to actively listen, and pay close attention to something other than ourselves.

set goals & self-reflect

Self-reflection and setting goals are two practices that can make a huge impact on your mindset. They help create purposeful progress and can keep your focus and energy where you want it. The act of identifying where you're at and setting goals is a reflective process in itself.

start journaling

Journaling has a positive impact on physical well-being. The act of writing accesses your left brain, which is analytical and rational. While your left brain is occupied, your right brain is free to create, intuit, and feel. Writing allows you to use all of your brainpower to better understand yourself, others, and the world around you.

what science says about stress

Stress affects all systems of the body, including muscles, respiratory, cardiovascular, endocrine, gastrointestinal, nervous, and reproductive systems.

For example, when the body is stressed, muscles tense up. Muscle tension is a reflex reaction to stress— it's the body's way of guarding against injury and pain. Stress also stimulates a part of your brain called the hypothalamus, which then stimulates your adrenal glands to release hormones, called cortisol and adrenaline.

An increase in these hormones can result in an increase in heart rate and blood pressure. When your heart rate increases, your breath quickens, and your muscles are ready for action. This is your body's natural response and has the purpose to protect your body in an emergency, by preparing you to react quickly. Unfortunately when your stress response keeps firing, day after day, it could put your health at risk.

BRAVENLY BREAKTHROUGH PROGRAM

tangible vs. intangible results

It is important to remember, that sometimes "results" are intangible. You can't physically SEE a more optimistic mindset, or a healthier gut like you can see weight loss, or even better lifestyle habits. And that's OKAY! As long as you are taking the necessary steps to incorporate healthier habits, we can almost guarantee that you are having RESULTS!

BUT HERE IS WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

week 1

You are just getting the hang of things with your new and healthier lifestyle. You might experience a couple of detoxing symptoms like a dull headache. Keep taking your products consistently and don't fret if you're not seeing big results yet. You've got this!

week 2

Your healthier choices are starting to feel habitual and you are becoming more confident in yourself. We hope you're loving the extra pep in your step. Your body is thanking you for over a week of incredible nutrition!

week 3

It takes 21 days for a habit to form, so you should be feeling consistent and confident in your new positive habits! As you add the suggested grocery items, take your products, and continually stick to those good habits you should feel lighter, emotionally, physically, and mentally. You might experience better sleep and a clearer mind, maybe even clearer skin and regular digestion.

week 4

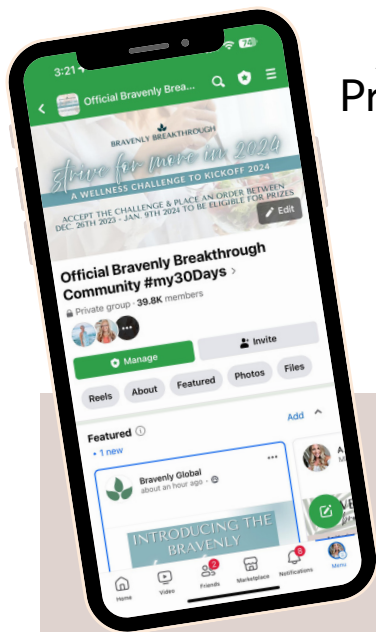

Last week, woo-hoo! Stay the course and stay committed. You're almost at a month of new habits. Detoxing has never felt refreshing. Now is a good time to start reflecting on the last couple of weeks and looking ahead at what your next breakthrough might look like. Remember, bite-size goals are more manageable. You can do ANYTHING for 30 days.
